You Are Invited to Participate

A group of nineteen organizations have joined together to create Women United for Change, an educational and advocacy event opportunity to learn more about legislative solutions to issues impacting women. Legislators from the Ohio General Assembly have been invited to participate in a series of panels to discuss the issues affecting women in Ohio and policy solutions – including currently pending legislation in Ohio – to address those problems. This event will also be an opportunity to learn tips on how to effectively advocate for legislation that positively impacts women and families.
