

HEALTH CARES ABOUT DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DAY

*Responding to domestic violence saves health care costs.
Screening for Domestic Violence Helps Save Lives & Futures.*

October 9, 2013

10 AM – 2 PM

In the Museum Gallery at the Ohio Statehouse

Presented by ACTION OHIO

Coalition For Battered Women

Who should attend?

Anyone who serves or cares for victims & their children.

Applications for CSWMFT CEUs pending. Nurses may apply CEUs to Nurse CE requirements.

Featuring

Health Care & Social Services Displays & Exhibits

Professional Training Sessions On Screening for Domestic Violence

11 AM - 12 Noon

"Listening to the Voices of Survivors - Survivors Can Teach Us How To Screen for Abuse." Film Presentation Followed by Review of DV Screening Basics With Lisa Carroll, RN, BSN, Outreach Worker, Jewish Family Services, & Judy Dixon, BSs, BA, Domestic Violence Coordinator, Columbus Public Health

1 - 2 PM

Screening High Risk Pregnant Patients for Domestic Violence – An Introduction to Project S.A.F.E. With Beverly Roseman- Shapiro, LISW-S, Coordinator, Project S.A.F.E., The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, & Sarah Saxbe, LISW-S, Coordinator, Teen and Pregnant Program, Nationwide Children's Hospital

RSVPs Requested by Oct 7

This event including CEUs is free of charge.

ACTION OHIO Coalition For Battered Women

5900 Roche Dr., Suite 445, Columbus, OH 43229

E-mail actionohio@sbcglobal.net

Call 614 825-0551 | Fax 614 825-0673

Name _____ Organization _____

Address _____

Phone/Fax/Email _____

Session(s) attending: 11am- 12 noon 1pm -2pm