Take Part in Two Great Programs

Thinking About Money: Today & in Your Future

Thursday, May 5, 7:00 - 9:00 PM

Columbus Metropolitan Main Library, 96 S. Grant Ave.

Presented by Linda D. Craig, Community Outreach Coordinator,

Franklin County Treasurer Office

Lillian Williams Purkey, Community & Civic Affairs,

Franklin County Treasurer Office

Janet Harrison, Consumer Credit Counseling

No one will sit in their seats while they participate in the Real Money, Real World curriculum created by Ohio State University Extension and 4 H Money Management Program. Together parents and their daughters (5th through 8th grade) will begin the conversation about decision making and money. Understanding how to manage your funds is the beginning of financial independence.

Space is limited, so please register by contacting Lisa Carroll at 614.559.0124 or Jewish Family Services at 614.231.1890. The cost is $10 for the parent and daughter(s) team.
